

Summer League Participation Terms and Conditions

These Summer League Participation Terms and Conditions ("these Terms") set forth the conditions for participation in the "Japan Summer League" (the "Summer League") operated by Japan League Co., Ltd. (the "Company"), and the rights and obligations between the Company and participating players. Prior to participating in the Summer League, players are required to read these Terms in full and agree to them.

Article 1 (Application)

1. These Terms are intended to set forth the conditions for participation in the Summer League and the rights and obligations between the Company and participating players in connection with the Summer League, and shall apply to all relationships between the Company and participating players relating to the Summer League.
2. The rules concerning participation in the Summer League posted by the Company on its website (<https://www.japanleague.co.jp/>) shall constitute part of these Terms.
3. In the event of any discrepancy between the provisions of these Terms and the rules referred to in the preceding paragraph or any other explanation of the Summer League outside these Terms, the provisions of these Terms shall prevail.

Article 2 (Definitions)

As used in these Terms, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below.

- (1) "Summer League Participation Agreement" means the agreement for participation in the Summer League entered into between the Company and a player, with these Terms as its terms and conditions.
- (2) "Company" means Japan League Co., Ltd.
- (3) "Company Website" means the website operated by the Company at the domain "<https://www.japanleague.co.jp/>" (including, where the domain or content of the Company's website is changed for any reason, the website as so changed).
- (4) "Participating Player" means an individual who has been registered as a participating player of the Summer League pursuant to Article 4 (Registration).
- (5) "Summer League" means the tryout league operated by the Company under the name "Japan Summer League" (including, where its name or content is changed for any reason, the league as so changed).

Article 3 (Eligibility Requirements)

The requirements for participation in the Summer League shall be as follows.

1. The applicant must be an experienced baseball player who will turn 18 years of age during fiscal year 2026 (April 1, 2026 to March 31, 2027) and must have completed compulsory education.
2. The applicant must be able to submit a consent form or similar document signed or affixed with the name and seal of his/her legal representative.

Article 4 (Registration)

1. A person wishing to participate in the Summer League (an "Applicant") may apply to the Company for registration as a participant in the Summer League by agreeing to comply with these Terms and providing the Company with certain information specified by the Company (the "Registration Information") in the manner specified by the Company.
2. The Company shall determine, in accordance with its own criteria, whether to approve the registration of an Applicant who has applied for registration under the preceding paragraph (a "Registration Applicant"), and where the Company approves the registration, it shall notify the Registration Applicant accordingly. The registration of a Registration Applicant as a Participating Player shall be deemed completed upon the Company's issuance of such notice, following completion of payment of the participation fee set forth in Article 7, Paragraph 1.
3. Upon completion of the registration set forth in the preceding paragraph, a service participation agreement shall be formed between the Participating Player and the Company, and the Participating Player shall thereafter be entitled to participate in the Summer League in accordance with these Terms.
4. The Company may refuse to register or re-register a Registration Applicant who falls under any of the following items, and shall bear no obligation whatsoever to disclose the reasons therefor:
 - (1) Where any part of the Registration Information provided to the Company is false, incorrectly stated, or omitted;
 - (2) Where the Registration Applicant is a minor, an adult ward, a person under curatorship, or a person under assistance, and the consent of his/her legal representative, guardian, curator, or assistant has not been obtained;
 - (3) Where the Company determines that the Registration Applicant is an Antisocial Force, etc. (meaning organized crime groups, organized crime group members, right-wing organizations, antisocial forces, and other persons equivalent thereto; the same shall apply hereinafter), or has cooperated with or otherwise been involved in the maintenance, operation, or management of an Antisocial Force, etc., including through the provision of funds;
 - (4) Where the Company determines that the Registration Applicant has, in the past, breached an agreement with the Company, or is a related party of such a person;

(5) Where the Company determines that the Registration Applicant does not satisfy the eligibility requirements set forth in Article 3; or

(6) Where the Company otherwise determines that registration is inappropriate.

Article 5 (Change of Registered Information)

Where any change occurs to the Registration Information, the Participating Player shall promptly notify the Company of such change in the manner specified by the Company.

Article 6 (Baseball Activities)

During the term of this Agreement, the Participating Player shall attend and take part in the training sessions and baseball games designated by the Company.

Article 7 (Fees and Payment Method)

1. As consideration for participation in the Summer League, the Participating Player shall pay to the Company the participation fee separately determined by the Company and individually notified to the Participating Player, by the due date stated in such notice and by the payment method designated by the Company; registration under Article 4, Paragraph 2 shall be deemed completed upon completion of such payment.

2. Where a Participating Player delays payment of the participation fee, the Participating Player shall pay to the Company late payment damages at the rate of 3% per annum.

3. After a Participating Player has completed payment under Paragraph 1, the Company shall not, under any circumstances, be obligated to refund the participation fee, whether due to the Participating Player's own failure to participate or due to a reduction in the number of games available in the Summer League resulting from force majeure events such as weather, earthquake, lightning, fire, storm or flood damage, power outage, infectious disease, or other natural disasters.

Article 8 (Equipment)

Of the baseball equipment required for games and training, the Company shall bear the cost of balls only and shall lend helmets. The Participating Player shall provide, at his/her own expense, all other necessary equipment (including, without limitation, uniform pants, socks, catcher's gear, bats, and gloves).

Article 9 (Cost Burden)

The Company shall bear the cost of lunches during the Summer League period. The Company shall not bear any other costs, regardless of their nature.

Article 10 (Medical Expenses)

Even where a Participating Player suffers an injury or illness directly resulting from training or a game and requires medical treatment, the Company shall not bear the cost thereof; such cost shall be borne by the Participating Player.

Article 11 (Medical Examination)

The Participating Player represents that he/she has no physical or mental condition that would impede or harm participation in baseball activities, and agrees to submit a medical certificate upon the Company's request.

Article 12 (Photography and Appearances)

1. The Participating Player shall be deemed to have given prior consent to being photographed or filmed by the Company or the mass media.
2. The Participating Player shall be deemed to have given prior consent to the Company's use of such photographs, videos, and the like, by any method, for the purpose of promoting the Company or the Summer League, and agrees not to raise any objection thereto.

Article 13 (Term)

The term of this Agreement shall be from the date of its conclusion through the end of December 2026.

Article 14 (Prohibited Acts)

In participating in the Summer League, the Participating Player shall not engage in any act falling under, or which the Company determines to fall under, any of the following items:

- (1) Acts that violate laws and regulations, or acts related to criminal conduct;
- (2) Fraudulent or intimidating acts against the Company, other Participating Players, or any other third party;
- (3) Acts contrary to public order and morals;
- (4) Acts that may interfere with the holding or operation of the Summer League;
- (5) Acts of impersonating a third party;
- (6) Promotion, advertising, solicitation, or sales activities relating to the Summer League not pre-approved by the Company;
- (7) Acts that cause disadvantage, damage, or discomfort to the Company, other Participating Players, or any other third party;
- (8) Provision of benefits to Antisocial Forces, etc.;

- (9) Acts that directly or indirectly induce or facilitate any of the foregoing acts;
- (10) Attempting any of the foregoing acts; and
- (11) Any other act the Company determines to be inappropriate.

Article 15 (Suspension of the Summer League)

The Company may suspend or discontinue the provision of all or part of the Summer League without prior notice to Participating Players where any of the following applies:

- (1) Where the Summer League cannot be held or operated due to force majeure events such as earthquake, lightning, fire, storm or flood damage, power outage, infectious disease, or other natural disasters; or
- (2) Where the Company otherwise determines that suspension or discontinuation is necessary.

Article 16 (Deregistration, etc.)

1. The Company may temporarily suspend a Participating Player's participation in the Summer League, without prior notice or demand, where the Participating Player falls under any of the following items:

- (1) Where the Participating Player has violated any provision of these Terms;
 - (2) Where it is discovered that the Registration Information contains false information;
 - (3) Where the Participating Player has suspended payments or become insolvent, or a petition has been filed for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, civil rehabilitation proceedings, or similar proceedings;
 - (4) Where the Participating Player does not participate in the Summer League;
 - (5) Where the Participating Player fails to respond for 30 days or more to an inquiry or other communication from the Company requesting a response;
 - (6) Where the Participating Player falls under any item of Article 4, Paragraph 4; or
 - (7) Where the Company otherwise determines that continuation of the Participating Player's participation in, or registration for, the Summer League is inappropriate.
2. Where any of the events set forth in the preceding paragraph applies, the Participating Player shall automatically lose the benefit of time with respect to all obligations owed to the Company, and shall immediately pay to the Company all such obligations in full.

Article 17 (Withdrawal)

1. A Participating Player may withdraw from the Summer League and cancel his/her registration as a Participating Player by completing the procedures prescribed by the Company.

2. Where the Participating Player owes any obligation to the Company at the time of withdrawal, the Participating Player shall automatically lose the benefit of time with respect to all such obligations and shall immediately pay them to the Company in full.

Article 18 (Termination)

The Company may terminate all or part of this Agreement, without prior notice or demand, where the Participating Player falls under any of the following items:

- (1) Where there has been a material breach of any provision of these Terms;
- (2) Where a criminal act, or any other act in violation of laws and regulations or public order and morals, is found to have occurred;
- (3) Where an act of bad faith that significantly undermines trust has occurred; or
- (4) Where any other material grounds arise that make it difficult to continue this Agreement.

Article 19 (Changes to / Termination of the Summer League)

1. The Company may change the content of the Summer League or discontinue its provision at its own discretion.
2. Where the Company discontinues the Summer League, it shall provide prior notice to Participating Players.

Article 20 (Disclaimer of Warranty and Limitation of Liability)

1. The Company makes no warranty, whether express or implied, that the Summer League is suitable for any particular purpose of a Participating Player, that it has the effects, commercial value, accuracy, or usefulness expected by the Participating Player, that a Participating Player's participation in the Summer League conforms to laws and regulations or internal rules of industry organizations applicable to the Participating Player, that participation can continue without interruption, or that no defects will occur.
2. The Company does not guarantee that a Participating Player will be given the opportunity to appear in games. The Participating Player shall be deemed to have given prior consent to the fact that opportunities to appear in games may vary depending on the Participating Player's skill, ability, and the course of play.
3. The Participating Player shall be deemed to have given prior consent to changes in the number of games due to force majeure events such as weather, earthquake, lightning, fire, storm or flood damage, power outage, infectious disease, or other natural disasters.
4. The Company shall bear no liability whatsoever to compensate for any damages (including injury) suffered by a Participating Player in connection with the Summer League, unless such damages result from the Company's willful misconduct or gross negligence; even where the Company is liable to compensate, its liability shall not exceed the amount paid to the Company by the Participating Player.

5. The Company shall bear no responsibility whatsoever for any transaction, communication, dispute, or other matter arising between a Participating Player and another Participating Player or a third party, and the Participating Player shall resolve such matters at his/her own responsibility.

Article 21 (Confidentiality)

With respect to any non-public information that the Company discloses to a Participating Player and requests be treated as confidential in connection with the Summer League, the Participating Player shall treat such information as confidential, except where the Company has given its prior written consent otherwise.

Article 22 (Handling of Participant Information)

1. The Company's handling of a Participating Player's participant information shall be governed by the Company's Privacy Policy attached hereto, and the Participating Player agrees to the Company's handling of his/her participant information in accordance with such Privacy Policy.
2. The Company may, at its discretion, use and publish information and data provided to it by a Participating Player in a statistical form that does not identify any individual, and the Participating Player shall not raise any objection thereto.
3. The Participating Player agrees in advance to disclose and provide his/her name, school affiliation, hometown, and other such information to mass media covering the Summer League.

Article 23 (Amendment of These Terms)

The Company may amend these Terms where it deems it necessary to do so. Where these Terms are amended, the Company shall give notice of the effective date and content of the amended Terms to Participating Players by posting on the Company Website or other appropriate means; provided, however, that where an amendment requires the consent of Participating Players under applicable law, the Company shall obtain such consent by the method prescribed by the Company.

Article 24 (Communications / Notices)

1. Inquiries and other communications or notices from a Participating Player to the Company regarding the Summer League, and communications or notices from the Company to a Participating Player, including notices regarding amendments to these Terms, shall be made by the method prescribed by the Company.
2. Where the Company sends a communication or notice to an email address or other contact information included in the Registration Information, the Participating Player shall be deemed to have received such communication or notice.

Article 25 (Assignment of Status under the Service Participation Agreement, etc.)

1. A Participating Player may not assign, transfer, create security over, or otherwise dispose of his/her status under the participation agreement, or any right or obligation under these Terms, to any third party, without the Company's prior written consent.
2. Where the Company transfers its business relating to the Summer League to another company, the Company may transfer its status under the participation agreement, its rights and obligations under these Terms, and the Registration Information and other customer information of Participating Players to the transferee of such business transfer, and the Participating Player hereby gives prior consent to any such transfer. For purposes of this paragraph, "business transfer" shall include not only an ordinary business transfer but also a company split and any other case in which the business is otherwise transferred.

Article 26 (Severability)

Even where any provision of these Terms, or part thereof, is determined to be invalid or unenforceable under the Consumer Contract Act or other applicable laws and regulations, the remaining provisions of these Terms, and the remaining part of any provision determined to be invalid or unenforceable, shall continue to be fully effective.

Article 27 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction)

1. These Terms and the Summer League Participation Agreement shall be governed by the laws of Japan.
2. The Tokyo District Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction as the court of first instance over any and all disputes arising out of or in connection with these Terms or the Summer League Participation Agreement.
